

Pottery on Wheels Newsletter

October/November 2015

Issue 1

Thank you for visiting us last weekend as a part of the West Bristol Arts Trail. Not only were some fantastic pots made but just under £50 was raised for the Julian Trust Night shelter. Thank you for eating cake so generously!

The Front Room Arts Trail in Totterdown is the next event for Pottery on Wheels, weekend of 21st and 22nd November.

Not only can you have a go on the potter's wheel but you can also make some festive decorations in a free 2-hour class.

Tickets can be collected from the Front Room Marquee on Totterdown Square and are given out on a first come basis so get in there quick.

The location and times are 12-2pm and 2.30-4.30pm on:

- Saturday 21st November at the Methodist Church Hall
- Sunday 22nd November at the Anglican Chapel in Arnos Vale Cemetery

Additionally, there are lots of other art classes running that weekend, all free. Please have a look at the attached information leaflet for more details.

If you would like to get potting before then I am offering some classes which are informal but structured, so you will create something worthwhile whilst enjoying the process.

Running from now until 4th December

Festive Decorations

Make your own porcelain Christmas tree decorations and tea light holders in a 1-hour class. Great for beginners and anyone who enjoys being creative.

£20 per person (materials and firing included) Max 3 persons

Taster Throwing Masterclass

This a 1-hour lesson on how to make pots using a pottery wheel. Suitable for beginners and those with some experience.

£60 one to one

£30 per person for two people (materials and firing included)

If you are interested, please get in touch to arrange a convenient time.

These prices are based on working in the Pottery Studio at 12 Cambridge Park. However, they can be run at a location of your choice (there may be an additional charge to cover travel costs).

Thank you for your time
